When is the best time to study abroad?

Second semester sophomore year or first semester junior year is the best time to study abroad, although you are not limited to those two semesters.

What courses should I take abroad?

Students can take almost any course abroad, but here are the most common:

MGMT 310 Managing People in Organizations

MKTG 301 Principles of Marketing

INFO 360 Business Information Systems (needed for most business majors)

FIRE 311 Financial Management

SCMA 325 Organizational Communication

SCMA 301 Business Statistics

SCMA 323 Legal Environment of Business (needed for most business majors)

How can I afford to study abroad?

Studying abroad does not have to be expensive! VCU offers a variety of program options to fit most students' budgets and the Education Abroad office assists students with identifying and applying for funding. Consider the following:

- Use what you already have! Most financial aid and scholarships that you already receive can be used toward study abroad. Other sources of funding may also help: pre-paid tuition plans, veteran's benefits, etc.
- Scholarships: There are VCU scholarships to study abroad as well as nationally competitive scholarships. Begin your search on our site and at StudyAbroadFunding.org and DiversityAbroad.com
- Program length: Per day expenses are often less expensive on semester programs than on summer programs and airfare may cost the same regardless of the length of your stay
- Program type: Programs with more structure that include group activities or excursions may be more expensive than exchange programs which include tuition, room, and board.
- Cost of living: If you're looking to save money on studying abroad, avoid destinations with a high cost of living like capital cities and popular tourist destinations.
- What's included? When considering the cost of a program, determine what the program fee includes...and what it doesn't. Some are almost all-inclusive and will cover the cost of a cell phone, insurance, group excursions and welcome/farewell receptions whereas other programs cover only the basics.
